

Board Candidates

Dr. Scott Besley

Dr. Scott Besley currently serves as the vice chair and treasurer of the Board and previously served as chair for eight years. Before joining the Board, he served on the Supervisory Committee. He has completed the entire Volunteer Achievement Program. Scott is an Associate Professor at the Kate Tiedemann School of Business and Finance in the USF Muma College of Business (serving as department chair from 1998 until 2015). Scott also serves on the board of the Morsani College of Medicine Self Insurance Program (he is treasurer and a member of the Investment Committee), the Advisory Board of the Academy of Finance of Hillsborough County, and the Investment Oversight Committee of the Pinellas County School Board. He has been a faculty member at USF since 1982 and a member of the credit union since 1983.

Ron Satterfield

Ron Satterfield currently serves as director and has previously served as an Associate Board Member for the credit union. He also currently chairs the credit union's Strategic Planning Committee. Ron began his volunteer work for the credit union in 2006 as a member and subsequently chair of the Supervisory Committee. Outside his work for the credit union, Ron has been on faculty at the Muma College of Business since 1993. He has taught courses in USF's Undergraduate, MBA, MS in Artificial Intelligence and Business Analytics, and DBA programs. His teaching is chiefly in the fields of statistics, statistical programming, operations management, and Six Sigma and process improvement. He has been the Academic Director of USF's Executive MS in Business Analytics and Information Systems program at USF, serving the needs of analytics professionals throughout the Bay Area and beyond. He has also consulted with numerous organizations on supply chain and analytics problems, working in such industries as healthcare delivery, municipal and financial services, industrial and consumer products, and retail grocery. Ron holds an MBA and a Ph.D., the latter from the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University.
