Getting started is easy.

There's no cost or obligation to meet with a Financial Advisor. Whether you're looking for guidance on a particular financial matter, or interested in putting together a comprehensive plan, we're here to help. We'll get you on the road to financial confidence.

Simply call, email us, or request an appointment online today.

Quality is everything.

Designed exclusively for members like you, Fibre Financial Group, located at Fibre Federal Credit Union, is committed to helping you and your family through a lifetime of financial planning needs.

You'll work with an experienced Financial Advisor to assess your current situation and outline your goals. With your complete financial picture in full view, you'll create a roadmap together that can take you where you want to go. You can feel confident that you're getting comprehensive advice from a partner who understands.

We're committed to offering financial services suited to your needs – providing value and confidence with relevant products and caring, competent service. Together, we'll review your accounts on a regular basis to ensure you're on track. And even if your situation changes, we'll be here for you, providing the same level of service and commitment you've come to expect, and deserve, from your financial professional.

You look to Fibre Federal for financial strategies that work for your life today. And you look to your Financial Advisor for strategies that prepare you for tomorrow. We're working to ensure your full financial picture is served, and all under one roof. Our philosophy focuses on what's most appropriate for credit union members, not just the bottom line. So, you can feel confident knowing you're getting the service you expect from people that have your interests in mind.
