

Electronic Communications Disclosure

Periodically, Horizon Credit Union (we, us) may be required by law to provide certain written notices or disclosures. This disclosure details the terms and conditions for providing such Communications to you electronically. Please carefully review the information below and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I Agree' button in this application.

Method of Providing Communications to You in Electronic Form

All Communications in either electronic or paper format from us to you will be considered "in writing". We recommend printing or downloading a copy of all electronic Communications provided to you, including this Disclosure. Electronic Communications will be provided either (1) via email at the email address you provide to us, (2) by access to a website that we will designate in an email notice sent to you at such time as the information is available, or (3) to the extent permissible by law, by access to a website that will generally be designated in advance for such purpose.

Getting Paper Copies

Once you agree to receive notices and disclosures electronically, we will not send you a paper copy unless you request it or we otherwise deem it appropriate to do so. While your Accounts are open, you can obtain a paper copy of any electronic communications by printing them yourself. To request a paper copy directly from Horizon Credit Union, contact us by telephone at 1-800-852-5316 or by using our secure mail service at <https://www.hzcusecuremail.org>. We may charge you a reasonable service charge for the delivery of paper copies of any Communications provided to you electronically pursuant to your authorization.

Withdrawing Your Consent and Consequences

You may withdraw your consent to electronic Communications at any time if you wish to be given paper copies of all required Communications. Additionally, if we are given an invalid email address, or the provided email address malfunctions, we will consider this a withdrawal of your consent to receive electronic Communications. Any withdrawal of your consent to receive electronic Communications will be effective only after we have a reasonable period of time to process your withdrawal. Please be aware that withdrawing your consent to receive electronic Communications may slow the speed at which we are able to perform certain transactions for you.

All Communications Will Be Sent To You Electronically

Horizon Credit Union will provide all required communications by the same method and to the same address that you have provided. This means that you can receive all communications electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. Unless and until such time as we are notified in accordance with the procedures outlined in this Disclosure (see the paragraph 'How to Withdraw Your Consent'), we will electronically provide all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements as well as any additional documents deemed necessary to conduct business during our relationship with you.

Contact Horizon Credit Union to Update Your Records

It is your responsibility to provide us with true, accurate and complete email address, contact and other information related to this Disclosure and your Account(s), and to maintain and update promptly any changes in this information. You may request an update to such information by contacting us at 1-800-852-5316. Please be prepared to provide us with the current information we have on file for you to verify your identification.
