Inspire Federal Credit Union Named “Best Credit Union of Bucks County” by the Community for the Third Consecutive Year

Bucks County, PA (March 2018) – Inspire Federal Credit Union, an innovative financial institution serving the community of Bucks County, was recently named the “Best Credit Union of Bucks County” by the Bucks Happening readership. This is the third consecutive year the Credit Union received this distinction.

The Happening List contest is an annual event where the Bucks County community nominates and votes for their favorite business, naming them the “Best of Bucks County”.

Inspire FCU has been the top Credit Union in past years, receiving the honor in 2016, 2017 and now in 2018.

Jim Merrill, President/CEO at Inspire FCU commented by saying, “It was an honor to have received this award the first time. Having our community vote us the “Best Credit Union of Bucks County” three consecutive years is a testament of the dedicated team here at Inspire and their commitment to those we serve”. Merrill continued by saying, “We make a strong commitment to provide the best service to our members and be a strong community partner. Winning this award for the third year is confirmation of our devotion and support to the Bucks County community.”

This award is in addition to the “Best of Bucks” award ran by the Courier Times, which the Credit Union has won for the previous four consecutive years. For more information visit www.inspirefcu.org.
